

ScheduleOnce Acquires Reschedule

Last Modified on Apr 28, 2021

ScheduleOnce is excited to announce the acquisition of Reschedule, the world's best algorithmic scheduling engine for interviews. Together, ScheduleOnce and Reschedule offer an end-to-end solution for interview scheduling through all phases of the talent acquisition lifecycle.

From preliminary screening calls and one-on-ones, to panels and all-day sequenced interviews, our combined solution can handle it all. The sophisticated algorithmic Reschedule scheduling engine combines interview requirements, hiring manager availability, and resource constraints to offer the best possible scheduling options.
