

User action: Cancel/request to reschedule for Booking pages without Event types

Last Modified on Feb 20, 2022

Tip:

We recommend using Event types with your Booking pages. Event types allow you to offer several meeting types with different durations, price, and other properties.

When the activity status of a booking is Scheduled, Rescheduled, No-show, or Completed, the User can request to cancel or reschedule a booking directly from the Activity stream.

Note:

You can cancel or reschedule directly from your calendar if you have connected your OnceHub Account to Google Calendar or Exchange/Outlook Calendar.

In this article, you'll learn how to cancel or request reschedule directly from the Activity stream when you use Booking pages which are not associated with Event types.

Effects of canceling or rescheduling

When you request to reschedule from the Activity stream, the booking is canceled and a reschedule request email notification is sent to both the User and the Customer. To reschedule, the Customer clicks the Reschedule now button directly from the email notification, or the Customer's cancel/reschedule link in the calendar event. When you cancel a booking from the Activity stream, a cancellation email notification is sent to both the User and the Customer.
