

VIDEO: Intro to Pooled availability

Last Modified on May 8, 2020

Pooled availability is a powerful feature that combines the availability of multiple team members into one booking calendar. By combining the availability of multiple members, you can provide customers with more timeslots and can distribute workload among your team according to your specific needs.

