

Location of the Scheduling options section

Last Modified on Oct 11, 2022

Scheduling options are located on the Booking page by default. If you associate Event types with your Booking page, the Scheduling options section is located on the Event type. This allows you to standardize the settings for your scheduling scenarios. Learn more about associating Event types with Booking pages

In this article:

- Booking pages associated with Event types
- Booking pages not associated with Event types

Booking pages associated with Event types

For Booking pages associated with Event types (recommended), go to Booking pages in the bar on the left, select the relevant Event type, and go to the Scheduling options section (Figure 1).

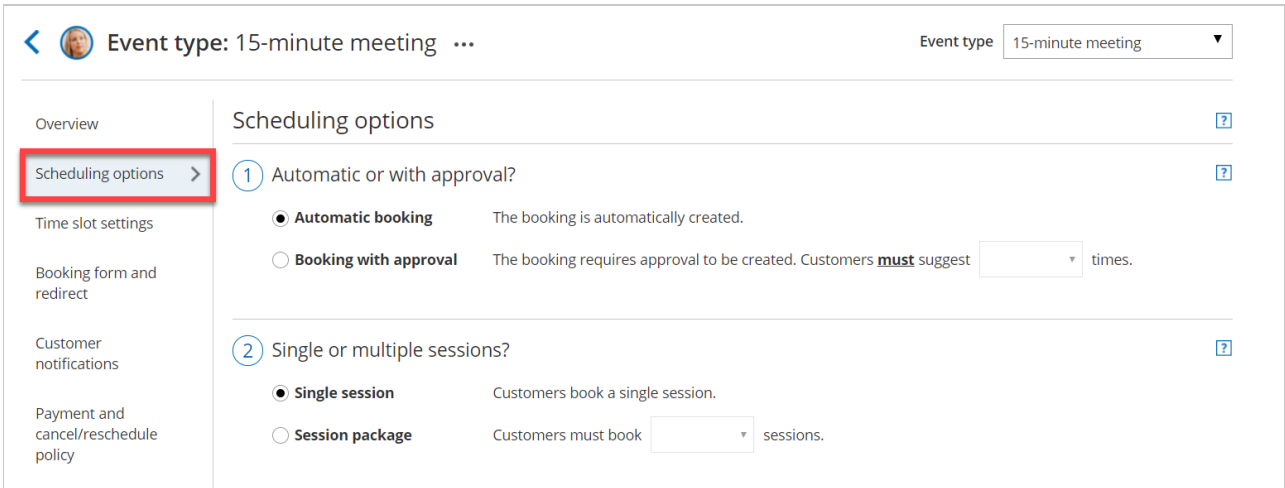

Figure 2: Scheduling options section when your Booking page is not associated with Event types

Booking pages not associated with Event types

For Booking pages not associated with Event types, go to Booking pages in the bar on the left, select the relevant Booking page, and go to the Scheduling options section (Figure 2).

Booking page: DanaFisher ...

Booking page DanaFisher

Overview

Event types

Associated calendars

Recurring availability

Date-specific availability

Scheduling options

Time slot settings

Scheduling options

1 Automatic or with approval?

Automatic booking The booking is automatically created.

Booking with approval The booking requires approval to be created. Customers must suggest times.

2 Single or multiple sessions?

Single session Customers book a single session.

Session package Customers must book sessions.

Figure 1: Scheduling options section when your Booking page has associated Event types