

Using Phone Booking to Offer a Conversational Scheduling Experience [New]

Share your dedicated Phone Booking Number for instant, direct scheduling. Guests can simply call your dedicated line instead of using a web browser to schedule a meeting.

This service is especially useful for clients who are:

- Busy or On-the-Go: Allows for convenient scheduling during commutes or other activities when browsing is impractical.
- Seeking Accessibility: Offers an essential, accessible alternative to online booking for those who are visually impaired or have other limitations.

How to Share Your Phone Booking Number

Sharing your Phone Booking Number makes it easy for clients to find and book time with you.

To maximize meetings, make sure the number is visible everywhere your clients look:

- Email Signature: Add the phone number to your professional email signature.
- Website: Display the number prominently on your "Contact Us" page or in the website footer.
- Social Media: List the booking number in the bio section of all your social media profiles (e.g., Facebook, Instagram).
- Online Directories: Update your online listings (e.g., Google Business Profile, Yelp) with the dedicated booking number.
